

WEAR ORANGE WEDNESDAY

Who: You and your friends

Where: Anywhere

When: April 18th - ALL DAY

Why: 1 in 5 children in Montana struggle with hunger. The color orange represents child hunger awareness. By wearing this color and encouraging others to do the same, you are increasing awareness and standing united in the cause of reducing childhood hunger.

How: Take a picture of yourself, your class, your staff, your co-workers, or your pets wearing orange - shirts, socks, ties, sunglasses, anything! Share it on Facebook and Instagram, tag @mtnokidhungry, and use the hashtag #WearOrangeWednesday.

Questions? Contact Montana No Kid Hungry
Email: jenny.martini@mt.gov // Phone: (406)444-5940.

For more information or to download resources, please visit our website:

<https://mt.nokidhungry.org/awareness-resources>

WEAR ORANGE WEDNESDAY

Who: You and your friends

Where: Anywhere

When: April 18th - ALL DAY

Why: 1 in 5 children in Montana struggle with hunger. The color orange represents child hunger awareness. By wearing this color and encouraging others to do the same, you are increasing awareness and standing united in the cause of reducing childhood hunger.

How: Take a picture of yourself, your class, your co-workers, or your pets wearing orange - shirts, socks, ties, sunglasses, anything! Share it on Facebook and Instagram, tag @mtnokidhungry, and use the hashtag #WearOrangeWednesday.

Questions? Contact Montana No Kid Hungry
Email: jenny.martini@mt.gov // Phone: (406)444-5940.

For more information or to download resources, please visit our website:

<https://mt.nokidhungry.org/awareness-resources>

WEAR ORANGE WEDNESDAY

Who: You and your friends

Where: Anywhere

When: April 18th - ALL DAY

Why: 1 in 5 children in Montana struggle with hunger. The color orange represents child hunger awareness. By wearing this color and encouraging others to do the same, you are increasing awareness and standing united in the cause of reducing childhood hunger.

How: Take a picture of yourself, your class, your staff, your co-workers, or your pets wearing orange - shirts, socks, ties, sunglasses, anything! Share it on Facebook and Instagram, tag @mtnokidhungry, and use the hashtag #WearOrangeWednesday.

Questions? Contact Montana No Kid Hungry
Email: jenny.martini@mt.gov // Phone: (406)444-5940.

For more information or to download resources, please visit our website:

<https://mt.nokidhungry.org/awareness-resources>

WEAR ORANGE WEDNESDAY

Who: You and your friends

Where: Anywhere

When: April 18th - ALL DAY

Why: 1 in 5 children in Montana struggle with hunger. The color orange represents child hunger awareness. By wearing this color and encouraging others to do the same, you are increasing awareness and standing united in the cause of reducing childhood hunger.

How: Take a picture of yourself, your class, your staff, your co-workers, or your pets wearing orange - shirts, socks, ties, sunglasses, anything! Share it on Facebook and Instagram, tag @mtnokidhungry, and use the hashtag #WearOrangeWednesday.

Questions? Contact Montana No Kid Hungry
Email: jenny.martini@mt.gov // Phone: (406)444-5940.

For more information or to download resources please visit our website:

<https://mt.nokidhungry.org/awareness-resources>

